ZA'ATAR

An actual all-purpose seasoning blend

This fragrant blend of dried herbs and spices, originating in the Middle East, adds earthy yet bright flavor to just about anything. "It's made with a particular type of wild thyme that's generally mixed with sumac, toasted sesame seeds, and salt," says Yasmin Khan, author of Sabzi: Vibrant Vegetarian Recipes. ~Real Simple, Sept. 2025

HODGE-PODGE TAKE AND MAKE

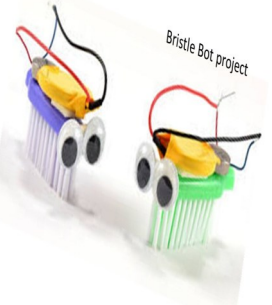

Book Hedgehog project

This art experience explores color relationships and design using geometric shapes and is for anyone wanting to experiment with using papers to create an original collage. This process includes drawing, color relationships, cutting, sharing and discussion. This is an all-ages program (Kindergarteners and 1st graders may need extra assistance).

Follow the helpful draw-along instructions to determine your character's looks, style, emotions, and ability to take a fall. Comics are for everyone so the recommended age for this activity is 3rd grade to adult.
